Mr. Hatch, for the Judiciary Committee, reported on the petition of the American League for an increase of the Council, as follows:

To His Excellency S. B. DOLE, Chairman of the Executive and Advisory Councils:

SIR:—The Judiciary Committee to whom was referred a petition from the American League dated January 23rd, 1894, praying for an increase of membership in the Councils, report:

That in their opinion the matters named in the petition should receive consideration. The question of representation in the view of the committee being of more moment than a mere increase of numbers in the Advisory Council. It is evident that a body self-perpetuating will in time lose its representative character. The expedient of an increase of members to be chosen at mass meeting would in the opinion of this committee be temporary in effect, and would not solve the question of representation in permanent and satisfactory manner. In the opinion of this committee the matters involved in the petition affect so seriously the fundamental principles of the Government that they should be considered more fully in connection with a place for the permanent reorganization of the Government.

The committee therefore recommend that a committee be appointed to form an Act providing for the election of delegates to sit in conjunction with the Executive and Advisory Councils as a constitutional convention.
